

12 Great Things You Can Find and Use at CPIR

1

Resources Galore!

Need family-friendly info or research-based materials on key topics for Parent Centers? Search the Hub library—more than 900 resources have been posted to date.

2

Buzz from the Hub

CPIR's monthly enews highlights hot new resources, upcoming events of note, and materials you can share with families via social media, your website, or your own newsletter. The Buzz also spotlights a different key topic every month.

3

Facebook and Twitter Posts Every Day

Keep on the pulse beat of the latest disability-related resources through CPIR's daily social media posts. Feel free to post them on your own social media pages.

4

NICHCY legacy resources in English

More than 450 resources were moved from NICHCY to the CPIR Hub, so they continue to be available to you. Family-friendly disability fact sheets, IDEA training materials, parent guides, easy-to-read explanations of early intervention and special education, all about the IEP... the IFSP... transition planning... you name it!

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/nichcy-resources/>

5

NICHCY legacy resources in Spanish

¡Sí! Ofrecemos muchos recursos en español que puede compartir con sus familias, incluyendo la mayoría de NICHCY...en español.

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/lista-espanol/>

6

Webinars

CPIR hosts regular webinars on priority topics of Parent Centers. Join live, or at your leisure via the Webinar archives. Topics include early learning, self-advocacy skill building, the new data collection forms, creating infographics, and more.

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/repository/webinar-archives/>

7

Webpages on Priority Topics

All of us in the Parent Center network have a common list of priority topics we are expected to address. This list of topics—14 in all—comes to us from the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) at the U.S. Department of Education. CPIR is building stand-alone webpages on the priority topics to connect you with great resources.

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/priority-topics/>

8

Central Event Calendar

Register for the Parent Center Work Spaces, then join Hub Central, where there's an event calendar we've created for the entire network. What's going on this month? Next month? You can post events of interest to Parent Centers, too!

9

Private Work Spaces for Parent Centers

Need a private place online to work with colleagues at your Parent Center? Want to exchange resources with other centers, discuss high-priority topics, solve mutual challenges? You can do all this and more in the private work spaces for Parent Centers on the Hub. Register today, join different groups, create your own groups.

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org/login/>

10

Featured Resources

Front and center on the CPIR homepage is a Featured Resource of the week. Always something new, hot, or important to Parent Centers!

11

Materials from Other Parent Centers

Has your center created resources that other Parent Centers would love to use in their own work with families? Submit those resources to the Hub or in the private work spaces. Find new resources, too, especially designed by and for Parent Centers.

<http://tinyurl.com/pj25hrf>

12

Expertise Exchange

CPIR is building a databank of Parent Center expertise and areas of strength. Help us build it by filling out a personal profile or sharing information about your Parent Center. We envision that Parent Centers can use the databank to identify partners, presenters, and specialists on topics of interest or challenge. You can also be found by others!

<http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07e906dgaphs9pmzcu/start>

Center for Parent Information & Resources

<http://www.parentcenterhub.org>

<https://www.facebook.com/nichcy>

<https://twitter.com/nichcy>

